

Currently, MCL requires extra lighting on a vehicle to be both off and covered on state highways.

When the statute was written, light covers were available in vinyl or plastic.

Today, LED lights are the leading choice but covers for LEDs are not manufactured.

